Westminster, May 28.

THIS Day, the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons, by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them that the Lords, authorized by Virtue of His Majesty's Commission, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, impowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, and several other Lords therein mentioned, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for enabling His Majesty to raise the Sum of One Million, for the Uses and Purposes therein-mentioned.

An Act for raising a further Sum of Money, by Loans, or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight.

An Act to permit the Exportation of certain Goods directly from Ireland into any British Plantations in America, or any British Settlement on the Coast of Africa; and for further encouraging the Fisheries and Navigation of Ireland.

An Act to permit the Importation of Cotton Yarn, the Manufacture of Ireland, into this Kingdom, Duty-free.

An Act for the more easy and better recruiting of His Majesty's Land Forces and Marines.

An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and for the Relief of Bankrupts, in certain Cases.

An Act to continue an Act made in the Sixteenth Year of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to authorize, for a limited Time, the Punishment, by Hard Labour, of Offenders, who, for certain Crimes, are or shall become liable to be transported to any of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations.

An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act, made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as relates to the preventing the clandestine Conveyance of Sugar and Paneles from the British Colonies and Plantations in America into Great Britain.

An Act for enabling Trustees under particular Turnpike Acts to meet, and carry such Acts into Execution, notwithstanding they may not have met or adjourned agreeable to the Directions of such Acts; and for preventing Disputes touching the Payment of Tolls for Horses or Carriages belonging to, or employed by, Officers or Soldiers on Duty.

An Act for erecting a Building for holding the Courts, and exercising the Jurisdiction, of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter in Westminster, within the City and Liberty of Westminster, and for holding the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and transacting the other Public Business of the said City and Liberty; and for appropriating Part of the Surplusses of the Orphans Fund towards defraying the Expence thereof.

An Act for widening and improving a certain Avenue called Dirty-Lane, and Part of Brick-lane, leading from Whitechapel to Spital Fields, in the County of Middlesex; and for paving Dirty Lane, and also the East Side of Petticoat Lane, from Whitechapel High Street to Wentworth Street, the said Avenue called Wentworth Street, from thence in one continued Line through Old Montague Street, Chapel Street, and Prince's Row, to Baker's Row, inclusive, and the several Streets and Passages leading into the same, and for removing all Obstructions and Encroachments therefrom, and preventing the like for the Future.

An Act for continuing the Term, and altering and enlarging the Powers, of an Act made in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for repairing, amending, and widening, the Road from Keighley, in the West Riding of the County of York, to Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Westmoreland.

An An for continuing the Term of an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled, An Act for amending, repairing, and widening, the Roads leading from the Rye Way, in the Parish of Yarpole, in the County of Hereford, to Presteigne, in the County of Radnor, and from thence to Leintwardine, and from Presteigne aforesaid, to the Top of Trap Hill, and from the Rye Way aforesaid, by the Maidenhead to Wooferton, in the County of Salop; and for amending, widening, and keeping in Repair, several other Roads branching out of the Roads comprized in the said Act.

And to Five Private Bills.

St. James's, May 30.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Earl of Dalhousie, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in National Assembly, consider it as our Duty, at this Season of Public Danger and Alarm, to approach your Throne, with the warmest Declarations of our continued and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. While we view with no less Astonishment than Concern an unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion still subsisting in North America, we must at the same Time applaud that Lenity, which hath prompted your Majesty, as the Father of your People, to hold out Terms of Conciliation to those deluded Men, who have withdrawn their Allegiance from a Government under which they had attained the highest Prosperity. We behold with Satisfaction the Measures which are taken both for Internal Security, and for the Support of the National Honour against the Insult of every hostile Power, and have the Pleasure to assure your Majesty, that in no Part of your Dominions have Exertions been made for that Purpose with greater Unanimity and Ardour than among the People under our Care. We entertain the firmest Hopes, under the Blessing of Almighty God, that by a proper Mixture of Vigour and Courage with Wisdom and Mercy in the Public Councils, your Majesty will continue to render the British Name every where respectable and great. We can assure your Majesty, that to the Ministers, the Elders, and every Member of this Church, nothing will give more Joy, than to behold all the Subjects of your wide extended Empire happy under Subjection of that free and legal Government to which we are indebted for the most valuable Blessings.

That, for this End, your Majesty's Councils may be ever inspired with Wisdom from above, and your Arms may be crowned with Victory; that He, who turneth Wars into Peace in all the Ends of the Earth, may so rule in the Hearts of Men, that the present preſent unhappy Conteſt in which this Kingdom is engaged may ſpeedily terminate in a Peace, which ſhall be equitable, laſting, and conſiſtent with the Honor and true Intereſts of Great Britain; and that your Majeſty may long reign the happy Sovereign of a happy People, are the ſincere and earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by Pat. Grant, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 23, 1778.

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Buckinghamſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Lord Viſcount Weymouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kilkenny.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty, to teſtify our unſhaken Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Government, and to declare the Abhorrence and Indignation we feel at that perfidious Violation of the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances which dictated the Declaration of the French King, delivered by his Ambaſſador to your Majeſty's Miniſter.

Confident of the Integrity of your Majeſty's Conduct towards Foreign Powers, and ſenſible of the Neceſſity of aſſerting the Honor of your Crown, we will vigorouſly exert in your Majeſty's Service all the Powers we poſſeſs, and chearfully ſubmit to all the Conſequences of ſo juſt a Conteſt.

And we truſt that your Majeſty will find an Union in the Hearts, and a Strength in the Hands of your Subjects, ſufficient to chaſtiſe the Inſolence of your Enemies, to aſſert the Dignity of your Crown, and to maintain the Intereſts of your People.

[Signed by Sixty-ſeven Names.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, Clergy, Freemen, and Citizens of Limerick, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with Hearts filled not only with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude to your Majeſty, but alſo with the moſt ſerious and anxious Concern for the preſent Safety and future Welfare of our Country.

Ambitious to make known our Attachment and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, and our earneſt Zeal for the happy Conſtitution of theſe Realms, permit us, Gracious Sovereign, in the preſent critical Situation of Affairs, to lay before your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Aſſurances of our Readineſs to ſupport and defend them with our Lives and Fortunes.

May the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, the Affections of your People, the Conduct and Reſolution of your Commanders, and the Intrepidity of your Fleets and Armies, convince the World of the innate Strength and Reſources of your Kingdoms, and, under the Bleſſing of God, ſupport the Dignity of your Crown, and defeat every Attempt of our Enemies to diſturb the Happineſs of your People.

[Signed by 167 Gentlemen.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Donegal, at Lifford aſſembled, the 17th of April, 1778.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Donegal, impreſſed with the moſt perfect Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, behold with Indignation the treacherous Schemes of the natural Enemies of our Conſtitution and Liberty. And we ſhould think ourſelves wanting in our Duty to our Country and Loyalty to our Sovereign, if, at this critical Juncture of Affairs, we did not aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Fidelity and Attachment; and that we will, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, co-operate with your Majeſty in the Support of our happy Conſtitution, and of the Honor and Dignity of your Crown.

[Signed by Twenty-four Names.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury, aſſembled at an Aſſizes held for the County of Antrim, the 10th Day of April, 1778.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Antrim, warmed with the moſt affectionate and reſpectful Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, embrace this Opportunity of our being aſſembled, to lay before your Majeſty the unanimous and indignant Senſe which we entertain of the unprovoked and ungenerous Inſult offered in the French Ambaſſador's Notification.

We do aſſure your Majeſty, that on whatever Occaſion our Aid or Services may be required, your Majeſty will find the moſt zealous Exertion of our beſt Efforts to promote whatever your Royal Wiſdom may direct for the Protection of your People, and the Humiliation of your Enemies.

We have enjoyed many Bleſſings under your Majeſty's juſt and benign Adminiſtration; a ſpirited, vigorous, and unanimous Support of it will, we truſt, evince how gratefully ſenſible we are of thoſe Bleſſings.

Signed by William Moore, Sheriff.
William Durkin, Foreman, and Twenty two Grand Jury.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriffs, Grand Jurors, and Gentlemen of the City and County of Londonderry, aſſembled the 22d of April, 1778.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us to expreſs to your Majeſty the Reſentment we feel at the Conduct of a neighbouring Power, who, ever envious of your Majeſty's Glory, and the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People, in Violation of all Amity and good Faith, is at this Moment not only endeavouring by ſecret Treaties to obſtruct that Peace which your Majeſty is graciouſly labouring to reſtore to every Part of your Dominions, but even menacing to diſturb the Tranquility of theſe your Kingdoms.

We gladly embrace the preſent Opportunity of teſtifying our inviolate Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government. The Reſources which your Majeſty will find in the Loyalty and Valour of your faithful Subjects, inflamed by ſuch Injury and Indignity, will, we doubt not, be fully ſufficient to vindicate the Honor and Rights of your Crown and Empire.

Confident that all Ranks and Denominations among us are firmly united in Zeal and Devotion to your Majeſty and our Country, we make an humble Tender of our Service, and flatter ourſelves, that the ſame Ardour in Defence of our Liberties and happy Conſtitution, with which our Anceſtors of this City ſo ſucceſsfully reſiſted an Enemy ſupported by French Arms and Councils, will not, on Trial, be found to have degenerated in us their Deſcendants, who now declare our firm Reſolution, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to exert our utmoſt Abilities in Oppoſition to all your Majeſty's Enemies.

Signed by the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Dean of Derry, and Sixty-nine others.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and General Aſſembly of the Iſland of Barbados, having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord George Germain, One of His Majeſty's jeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and General Aſſembly, of your Majeſty's Iſland of Barbados.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly, of your Majeſty's faithful and antient Iſland of Barbados, with Hearts warmed by Gratitude and excited by Duty, humbly beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for the many Bleſſings we derive from the Lenity of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; and particularly for your Majeſty's late Goodneſs, in ſending us a bountiful Supply of Proviſions, when, from the Failure of accuſtomed Rains, our Crops of Grain were loſt, and the melancholy Proſpect threatened the Deſtruction of this once flouriſhing Colony.

At a Time when the weighty Concerns of a mighty Empire naturally may be ſuppoſed to engroſs the Attention and claim the Exertion of the moſt active Minds, this condeſcending Attention to this diſtant Iſland, ſo ſeaſonably applied, more feelingly marks the paternal Tenderneſs of our Sovereign, diffuſing it's benign Influence towards His more diſtant Colonies, unconfined to thoſe happier Regions nearer to His Royal Throne.

We beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, however your Iſland of Barbados may be impoveriſhed, however enfeebled by unavoidable Calamities, (Calamities which have ſeverely decayed that Strength and Vigour, which ſprung from the Wealth and Populouſneſs of her younger Days, yet, bound by Inclination as well as Duty) we ſhall on all Occaſions be equally forward to teſtify our unſhaken Loyalty to the beſt of Sovereigns, and to oppoſe all Diſturbers of the Eaſe and Happineſs of His Government.

And here we cannot help taking Occaſion to declare our juſt Abhorrence of thoſe unwarrantable Practices on the Continent of America, which have ſince broke out into an unnatural Rebellion. We truly lament the Deluſion of thoſe unhappy People, who have been ſeduced to exchange their former unbounded Happineſs for the deſtructive Conſequences of a ruinous State of Anarchy and Confuſion. We ſincerely hope that they will ſoon be reclaimed to a proper Senſe of their Duty, and of thoſe Benefits, which, from your Majeſty's Mercy, they may yet avail themſelves of.

As every Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family is an additional Security to the Religion and Liberties of your Majeſty's extenſive Dominions, as well as to your domeſtic Happineſs, ſo we cannot but conſider the late Birth of a Princeſs to your Royal Conſort an Event as pleaſing as it is intereſting, affording to us, among the reſt of your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the higheſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction. May One deſcended from your Majeſty never be wanting to tranſmit the Bleſſings we enjoy to the lateſt Poſterity!

We are, with all Duty and Reſpect,
Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Signed by the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly.]

N.B. No Attendance will be given at this Office on the Day of the Ball, after Two o'Clock.

Lord

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 27, 1778.

To prevent the Inconveniencies which have ariſen from the Space before their Majeſties, which is allotted for Minuet-Dancing, being exceedingly crouded, it is requeſted that thoſe Ladies only, who mean to dance, will ſend for Dancers Tickets, and ſit in thoſe Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Admiralty-Office, May 5, 1778.

WHEREAS it has been repreſented to my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that there are at this Time ſeveral Deſerters from the different Diviſions of His Majeſty's Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon, and that ſuch Inſtance of Clemency would have due Influence on their future Behaviour: Their Lordſhips, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, and to remove their Apprehenſions of the Puniſhment due to their Crime, do hereby give Notice, That ſuch of the ſaid Deſerters as ſhall ſurrender themſelves at any of the aforeſaid Diviſions at Portſmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any Recruiting Party of the Marines in Great Britain or Ireland, before the 30th Day of June next, will receive His Majeſty's Free Pardon.

And whereas ſeveral of the ſaid Deſerters have been apprehended, and are now in Gaol or Military Cuſtody: Their Lordſhips do hereby farther give Notice, That His Majeſty's Free Pardon will be extended to them alſo, of which they are to have the Benefit, upon their Arrival at any of the Marine Head Quarters.

And any Marine who may deſert, after this Public Notice of His Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions, will not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Severity

The Tea and Rummage to be viewed at the ſame Place on Saturday the 30th of May, and Monday the 1ſt of June, from Nine to One in the Forenoons, and in the Mornings before the Sale; where Catalogues will be delivered.

General Poſt-Office, April 7, 1778.

ON Saturday laſt the 4th Inſtant, about Eleven at Night, the Poſt-Boy was attacked and robbed, Eight Miles from York, in the Road to Malton, of the Bag of Letters from this Office of Thurſday Night laſt the 2d Inſtant, for Scarborough, Malton, Whitby, and other Places within the Delivery of Scarborough and Malton, and alſo of the Bag with the Bye and Road Letters for the ſame Places.

The Perſon who committed this Robbery was then on Foot, but when he paſſed two Turnpike Gates in the Neighbourhood was mounted upon a Light Bay mettled Horſe, about Fourteen Hands and an Half high, ſtrong made; and the Bar-keepers agree with the Poſt-Boy in the Deſcription of the Robber, that he was a ſtout Man, Six Feet high, and thin in the Face, with Black Stockings, Waiſtcoat and Breeches, and Brown Copper-coloured Coat; his own ſhort curled Hair powdered, with a round Hat, two Sides of it tied up; and the the Post Boy observed, whilst he lay with his Hands and Feet bound in a Field adjoining the Road, that the Robber put the Bills, &c. which he took out of the Letters, into the inside Pocket of his light Great Coat.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen; or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.
